1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

2. Claims 16-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

The claims are directed to a judicial exception; as such, pursuant to the Interim Guidelines on Patent Eligible Subject Matter (MPEP 2106), the claims must have either physical transformation and/or a useful, concrete and tangible result. The claims fail to include transformation from one physical state to another. Although, the claims appear useful and concrete, there does not appear to be a tangible result claimed. Merely “inspecting” and “reviewing” as in claim 16 does not appear to be sufficient to constitute a tangible result, since the outcomes of the “inspecting” and “reviewing” steps are an abstract values that are not being claimed as being used in a disclosed practical application nor as claimed are they being made available in such a manner that its usefulness in a disclosed practical application can be realized. As such, the subject matter of the claims is not patent eligible.

Claims 17-20, dependent from claim 16, are similarly rejected because none of these claims add to their parent claim the required practical tangible application or make the outcome available in such a tangible manner that its usefulness in a disclosed practical application can be realized.

Art Unit: 2877

3. Claims 1-15 as amended appear to be allowable for the reasons set forth in the previous office action. The art of record does not appear to teach a single system with two separate subsystems which form two separate aerial images, with the two being used for different purposes, one for inspection and the other for review, as disclosed and claimed herein.

4. The remarks filed 10 November 2006 have been considered. The guidelines state that, in determining subject matter eligibility under 35 USC 101, "the focus is not on whether the steps taken to achieve a particular result are useful, tangible, and concrete, but rather on whether the final result achieved by the claimed invention is 'useful, tangible, and concrete.'" (MPEP 2106 IV C 2(2)). In claim 16, the final result is the abstract results of the "inspecting" and/or "reviewing" steps. The results of these steps are abstract determinations of the abstract results of the inspection and/or review; they are not claimed as being used in any tangible manner or for any tangible purpose, nor are they being claimed as being fixed, displayed, communicated, or the like, in a manner which makes them tangible. As claimed they remain in the abstract realm, and as such are not patent eligible under the guidelines of MPEP2106.

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
